Mr. N.R. Choudhary for the petitioner.

Heard.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the written submission submitted by it are liable to be taken on record.

There is no provision for taking the written submission subsequently to the filing of written statement. If subsequently the parties are permitted to file successive written submissions, then there would be no end to it. Parties have to be vigilant to incorporate all their points when the first written statement is filed. If it looses sight of certain facts, legislation has taken care not to permit such litigants to amend the pleadings. Therefore, the Order 6 Rule 17 CPC has not been made applicable to the tribunals under the Rajasthan Rent Control Act. The trial court has not committed any illegality in refusing the application. No case for interference is made out. The writ petition having no force is hereby dismissed.
